Volume 84

MELROSE PUBLIC LIBRARY
MELROSE, MA

Dear Ms. Pascarell and Ms. Conis,

Four years of high school presents both ups and downs, but having two people as special as each of you in our lives has truly made high school a one-of-a-kind experience.

Ever since we met as freshmen, you have been a supportive and caring presence in our lives. When we did not know how to get around the halls, let alone take part in spirit week, your confidence kept us going, and we definitely showed everyone how cool the 50's were. From bake sales and Fudds nights to an awesome Junior Prom and Senior Week, you have inspired us and we realize how lucky we are to have you as a part of it all.

You invested so much of yourselves in our class: early morning meetings, late night dances, and hallway decorating, and you did it all while trying to balance your own hectic schedules. We are so thankful for your commitment to us, and we want you to know that your guidance has made a great impact on our lives. No matter whether we had a problem in school, out of school, or, of course, on Wednesday mornings, your unconditional care and confidence was there to help make us stronger, smarter, and more determined. You made us realize our potential, while encouraging us to strive for the best and confront all odds. As we move on from Melrose High School, your positive influence will continue to impact each of our lives. We are the Class of 2009, and we will never forget you!

The Class of 2009

GM 373
MARLOSE HIGH
2009

As we embarked on our four year adventure we were each destined to find our own treasures. Together we have navigated the map of life and along this voyage have faced defeat, conquered challenges, and were triumphant in our endeavors. Hold on to the friendships you have made and the bittersweet memories, for without them you would not be who you are today. So hoist up your sails Class of 2009, and use your compass wisely, because you never know where the winds will take you. Remember it's not always the destination that matters, but the journey that got you there.

Mr. Madison, what you've just said is one of the most insane, idiotic things I've ever heard. At no point in your rambling, incoherent response was there anything that could even be considered a rational thought. Everyone in this room is now dumber for having listened to it. How do you keep finding me? IM WEARING ALL BLACK!

The choleric must combat his pride and anger continually. Pride is the misfortune of the choleric, humility his only salvation. Therefore he should make it a point of his particular examination of conscience for years." High school was this gargantuan blur of drama and noise. It happened so quickly I feel I've scarcely had time to remember it all. My friends are what got me through in one piece, without them I would have imploded. So even if I don't see them again, and even if I forget every bit of my experience here, I'll be grateful for them, for it all, because it made me the awesome person I am now!

Congratulations Chase AKA: Rychis
None but the righteous are forsaken.

"Do not follow where the path may lead. Go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." RWE

This is only the beginning for you; so don't let anyone get in the way of your future victories. Although people may judge you, there is only one true Judge. Therefore, make your own path, follow your dreams and look to the future. As you move on to your next journey in life, never forget your family and friends who were with you all the way. May God continue to be your refuge.

Sarah,
We are so proud of you!
Congratulations to you and the Class of 2009.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Rachel & Hannah

Dear Abbie,
We just want you to know how proud we are of you! You have grown up before our eyes and it's hard for us to realize that you will be leaving soon...

Continue making good choices, good friends and good times as you search for your "passion" in life! We love you and wish you and your friends all the best!

Love ya!
Mom, Dad & C.J.
